Ayer's Cathartic Pills, For all the purposes of a Laxative Perhaps no one medi-cine is so universally required by every-body as a cathartic

this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have foot, know that it cured them; those who have hot, know that it cured them; those who have hot, know that it cured them; those who have hot, know that it cured them; those who have hot, know that it cured them; those who have hot such that what it does once it does alloways—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all clirates; containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar-conting preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscers to purify the blood and sthulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bewels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.
